

Georgia Gerontology Society Scholarship 2018

Application Information & Instructions for Retired GGS Members

This program provides scholarship opportunities to attend the GGS annual conference to retired members of GGS. By making these awards, GGS aims to promote continued interest and involvement in aging-related issues across the lifespan.

Scholarship Award

Two winners will be selected to receive the Older Adult Conference Scholarship. Winners of the Older Adult Conference Scholarship will receive:

- 1) Free conference registration,
- 2) Free conference lodging,
- 3) Mileage Reimbursement and
- 4) A free GGS annual membership renewal.

General Eligibility

All candidates for scholarships must be a current GGS retired member. Not a member of GGS? A retiree GGS membership is $25/year and includes access to the following benefits:

- Access to the GGS Membership Directory
- Member Discounts for GGS Educational Events throughout the year, including the Annual Conference
- Access to Previous GGS Webinars
- Access to the GGS Mentorship Program
- Monthly GGS Connector Newsletter
- Networking Opportunities
- Advocacy Updates

You can visit <http://www.georgiagerontologysociety.org/members.htm> to apply for membership.

Materials to be Submitted

- Complete the electronic application which can be found at:
<http://georgiagerontologysociety.org/scholarships.htm>
- The following materials should be submitted electronically as attachments to the application.
 - A 1-2 page essay that describes your interest in aging-related issues or experiences, why you are interested in attending the annual conference, and how you will use the knowledge gained.
 - A statement of financial need (narrative, no more than 1 page)

If you have any problems with the electronic application, please email administrator@georgia gerontologysociety.org or call 404-780-3380 to make arrangements to submit a manual application.

Submission Deadline

Completed electronic application should be submitted by February 09, 2018.
Recipients will be notified by March 15, 2018.