Subject: Student Scholarship Competition Underway

Recognizing our commitment toward the promotion of leadership in gerontology, GGS sponsors an annual gerontology scholarship award program. This program provides scholarship opportunities to outstanding graduate and undergraduate students who are committed to pursuing a career in the field of aging. Applicants must be members of the Georgia Gerontology Society. Two scholarships are awarded each year. The Robert P. Wray Scholarship of $2,000 is awarded to one undergraduate student, and the Virginia M. Smyth Scholarship of $3,000 is awarded to one graduate student. By making these awards, we aim to promote student interest in aging-related issues and to promote professional development in gerontology.

The scholarship recipients will be recognized at the GGS Award Ceremony on Tuesday, August 9, 2022 during the GGS Annual Conference. In addition to the scholarship, recipients will receive a free 2022 GGS Annual Conference registration, hotel accommodations, and mileage reimbursement. Recipients will also receive a one-year membership renewal to GGS.

The 2021 Annual Conference will be August 8-10, 2022 at Callaway Resort and Gardens.

Please distribute the nomination form as widely as possible to students, faculty, and others in your network. This is a great opportunity for students who are interested in pursuing a career in the aging field; and we thank you for your assistance in publicizing it. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Executive Director at administrator@georgiagerontologysociety.org

The application and all supporting documents must be received by midnight on April 16, 2022. Please note that mailed documents must be in hand by April 16, 2022 not postmarked by April 16, 2022. Applicants will be notified of the committee's decision by May 14, 2022.

The application can be accessed at <https://georgiagerontologysociety.org/scholarships/>.
